PRESS -

"Scoot Pittman is a singer/songwriter who displays an emotive (read: genuine), bluesy acoustic soul rock sentiment which showcases a nice streetwise eclectic sound. He plays all the aforementioned elements with a live and kickin' attitude, and there's no reason why he can't be a star on the touring jam band circuit..."

~ Samir Shukla - Creative Loafing

"Instead of describing the show, I'll give you a few adjectives: quick on the uptake, pure quality, up to snuff, all there, on the ball, scintillating, glorious, dazzling, splendid, splendiferous, magnificent, marvelous, palatable, recherché, sensational, stupendous, superb, undefiled, in a class by oneself... NUFF SAID? I would definitely recommend Scoot Pittman for everyone. If ya don't believe me...go see him yourself and/or buy a CD..."
